Dear Folks & Bo!

This is going to be a short letter but it should be a long one 'cause I've not written for so long but I have to sign it now well today & I want to get it sent as early as possible.

When I left you, Max, I was so overcome I could hardly see & got up town. I then met Claffey & Maxine & they helped me take my mind off things but I still miss you & phony! I didn't feel like going back to the barracks then, too! & didn't get back till 11:00. Sat a half hour sleep & then went to school. Fortunately (this) - I had calisthenics, played football, scrubbed my L.L. shoes with soap & lark, shook blankets & changed my bed.

I am now sleeping on a single mattress & like it much better.

I have much more room to hang my clothes & the bed is better to sleep on. That's -

I went to bed at 3 & didn't get up till 1:30 this morn.

I'm going to get to bed early tonight, too!

I got several letters yesterday from you & one from Bob. He expects to go to Washington, D.C. today, for the 1st.

time is I don't know how long, I didn't get a single mail.

I sent you a snail today, Morn. I'm awfully sorry fella that I couldn't send much of any thing home to you by Morn. But I'll do better by you this payday. Morn. was fellow we were up from yesterday & saw my picture. I liked real well.

Till tomorrow—
Love to you all
