Dearest Family!

How goes it in the States?
Good, I hope. Every thing is fine with me. Food's still good. Living conditions still rough, but I really like it all a lot. Sure, I still miss you like the devil, & always shall, but Sir mums's gotten accustomed to it & will all have to make the best of it till I get home again. And I don't think that's so as long as I planned.

How do you like the results of the invasion so far? I haven't had much time to read the news dispatches lately but those I have and all good.

Remember all the trouble the Gantes was having getting a home? All they needed was encouragement & they summed it have gotten that when I got here.
Since the boys sorta needed me. Ha Ha - Yep, still the same ole cocky Glenn! The boys are movin' fast now, tho'.
More power to 'em; lets get this damned mess over!!

As I said in another letter if these bombing attacks keep up, the thing can't last much longer; & I mean to say they're catching Hell!

Yes, I'm sure some more combat since the other I ~~just~~ wrote about. That sound any more & am still in one solid hunk & will remain that way! Remember, I told you & wasn't worried so you shouldn't be. I'm still confident & it helps I think that you don't worry. I know my chances & they're excellent.

I'm riding as 'Top Gunner now & will probably stay in that spot. It's a good place to be & I'm very satisfied with it.

I still can't get over what a helluva heck that Bob Beatty is! I've had it on my mind ever since I was in Tokyo. I'll bet Marge is about sick from his running off with that other gal.

Today is "Code Day". One coke a week & I can drink it slow!!

Say, can you send me some light weight stationery & if it isn't too much weight, some canned juices, my khaki pants & a khaki shirt. <sup>size 14-32</sup> Here it is so that it's just a little bit bigger than the shirt I sent Dale. We can't get stationery over here & only one can of juice a week. Don't need any thing else unless you can ship in some M&M's. You enough gum & cigarettes. Thanks!!

Get some things & do so till next time —

I love you all
 Steve..
