Dear Family &      Tues. Ev.
6:30
6:29.43

I'm sorry I didn't write you today but will explain it later.
Right now I must apologize for this letter being so short. You see I went back town with the guy today + ate, drank a great deal of milk (Wesson), + took a show. I'm pretty tired + it's late.

I got a swell box + letter from you yesterday but nothing today.
Probably got it tomorrow. I took your advice right off. It's hot Dad! Yesterday afternoon I had more fun than when Wesson caught.

for - now - is the winter.
Ha. ha. Three other guys & I went "floating"! You ~~and~~ wife had as awful lot of mis in the last week & it formed a regular lake out in back of the barracks. a season with the thing! So we built a raft, found some poles & started out. Had our poles rolled up & were going along fine when we got to a big ditch where the water was about 7 ft. deep. There - another guy jumped from his raft. & down we were all in the water - swimming. Naturally, the laughed so hard we could hardly keep afloat! He came in & laid off & went right to bed & keep from catching cold.

I promise I'll write a real long letter tomorrow. We got paid tomorrow & I'm going to phone Ruth.

With love for all
Yours
John
