Sat. After.

Dear Family:-

5:30

7-343

I'm sorry I'm so tired
I can't write much but I went down town ^{yesterday} with a guy in the new barracks. His name is "Mac" & is really a well guy. We saw the show China & then ate & I came back cause I wanted to Phone Ruth.
You see I didn't get her phone note. Well, when I finally got her it was 10:30 & I only managed by skipping class, & catch 2 hrs. sleep & then today I had K.P. from 10 a.m. to 4:30 this afternoon. It's a long

2
story & I'll tell you all about it tomorrow. Nothing much but takes a long time to tell.

I called Sarah's son up yesterday to see if I could call her around today & then go out to her place & meet her but I was "busy" so couldn't make it. I phoned her tho & she was very understanding about the whole thing & is going to try to get 8 more men. Because Sonny Dunham's Band is playing at the Acker & as I've heard him often at home I want to see him.
I'm going to see if Monday is short enough to fit my compares & still work a shift.
I got gone well before today & 3 yesterday. You see are swell to write so often. I only wish I wrote more.

So you had a good time at the Race, eh? Good. I've only seen a race once & that was down at Benches Park in Columbus with J. Amos, B. Coker, & P. Shuler. Remember I beg were there the days!

The weather is well now. I'm sure glad the cold spells are over. I was beginning to get a cold but now all right now. I took good care of myself & wore plenty of clothes, mother, so don't worry!
Ha. Ha.

I'll send another Father's Day card, Dad. It will be late but I want you to have it.

I also have a Polar truck to send you guys.

The boys got quite a kick out of your night vision, Duke.
Take it easy! M.M.

Emily told me that she saw Bob Hines, a buddy of mine whom I met at M.I. Camp & went to the U. of school. I saw him at St. Pete & now his name is Sioux talk. Hope I can find him.

I really got it good and I'm dead tired & it's very late & sleep the tanks tonight.

Love
Shad...
