Dear Family:

This will be short because I've tried want to go to bed now. I slept all night but my cold got a little worse & I want to fight it with some sleep. I'm glad it got worse tho. for I always hack a chin & then go down. I'm taking like selten. So & will probably be over it by the time you get this.
Helen was well & talked to you last night. It seems so damn close & home.
Got you like today too.

Also one from Ruth.
 She doesn't know what the hell was the matter. I wrote her 10 pp. of how I felt. I didn't get round to anything but I stated plenty of facts.

Boy, that Max Thigman has a routine doesn't he? I know him well. He used to work up at Mac's Teetorium.

It's plenty hot here now.
 I'm going to get some more in just from now.

I was glad to hear from you, Dan, about the careful how much you get into a canoe you won't have any dough left at the end of the summer. So the gal in Maumee is pretty nice, & I ask her if she has a sister called Georgia. I know her out at school.

Am going so soon
but it's gotta be done.
Till tomorrow)

Love
