

Sum. Morn.
Dum Sevell Pab:

Well, in 5 days, I'll have seen in the Army & maybe the long time we see the civilian P-suit like - you guys!

I am down in the city now waiting for your call to go there.
I was down & tried to see we decided to go over to the Sevier Club for dinner but that is a 1 & 2 hr. (that means 3-4 hr) delay then Chicago so I guess we'll have to go out tomorrow.

It isn't too hot out here today as there is a nice breeze

but these damn fish are driving me crazy!

I got a letter from you yesterday & a letter from Do.
Maybe if I'd answer some of them I would get some more mail. I wish I'd answer from while I'm waiting here.

I got my watch when I was up there. $1.50 for a leather strap & $1.75 for a crystal. They were cheap - I bought them here.

tomorrow morning class
#46 - the one I studied out in - is graduating. Boy, I me with I³ were going with 'em. It also means I'll be separated from some mighty well backed. I do.

God only knows when or where I'll meet 'em again — if I do! I'm going to get that from old man so I can get in touch with them.
School is still pretty interesting & if I want for it quite so long I go yet, it wouldn't be so bad. I almost passed 10 a.m. in Phoenix last night. I might get lucky one of these days & make it.

Say, I seem to have lost Dorothy's address & his a dummy threw him away after I examined him should have his address, either. See if you can get Em & send him & me will you? Thanks.

Yours & Howard's -
