Dear Fannie:

Well, all the boys out of my original class are graduating right now - the lucky dogs.

I have been to breakfast & am already off to work & sleep till 11:15 time & get up tomorrow by noon - I lazy!

I was sure well & talk to you yesterday. If I didn't wound to sleep, it was because I was pretty sleepy yet. I am going

-2-

I'll be well to see you guys again but I wish you could make it to Dad.

I'll see you sometime around the 1st of May
- I hope.

They are changing the requirements for passing a core check now & it's really going to make it tough for graduates but I'm sure I'll pass it. It's going to be tough on the guys who don't have a fairly high core speed. The 1st is complicated ~~and~~ to explain is I'll tell you about if when I see you.

It's quite cool here this morning. Kinba misses of the having it hot so bad! Even so, better real hot than real cold.

No mail yesterday because I was ^{in the} Sunday in the dreamt ^{of the} sun, much I write about.

I want to write some more but so if you'll excuse this one being so short, I'll write more tomorrow.

Love
John
