Dear Folks:

We start the new shift today. 10 a.m. to 5:40 p.m. & can go to town till midnight after P.T. which is over at 8 p.m.

I just came in from the latrine when I shaved, showered & changed my teeth & found out I had missed class. I could catch it but I'm too lazy.

It's really a nice day here today. If it were the loveliest weather in the world in Bee Bee I'd like to be there. Only 7 1/2 more days of school! I'm in the army tomorrow. It's the first time in my life that I ever "snaked" time.

I really like "Towers".
Last night Rossetti was in T. #2 & I was in #1 & we sent a blinker back & forth for about an hour. Then I had to go down & smoke & decode messages & after that went over to the 274v. - his power - command set for a couple hours. We were supposed to fly last night but the weather was too uncertain. It's really interesting & actually quite interesting when the "end" is in sight!!

The guy who stole that $38 is here in the barracks now.
